

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Glauco Araujo Nominated for Supporting Actor at the Wilmington Theater Awards for Red

New York, NY - Brazilian-born actor and international performer Glauco Araujo has been nominated for Supporting Actor at the 2026 Wilmington Theater Awards for his performance as Ken in Red. The production premiered in October 2025 at Thalian Hall Center for the Performing Arts and is currently preparing for a national tour.

Araujo's portrayal of Ken has been recognized for its emotional precision and dynamic physical presence, contributing to the production's critical acclaim and expanding national visibility.

Glauco Araujo is an award-nominated actor and singer whose work spans theater, film, and television in the United States and internationally. His screen credits include Netflix's Manifest and Russian Doll, as well as the feature film Daughter of the Bride alongside Academy Award winner Marcia Gay Harden. On stage, he has appeared in dramatic and musical productions nationwide and has served as host for major international arts festivals in Mexico and China.

"I am deeply grateful for this nomination and for the opportunity to bring this role to life," said Araujo. "Red is a powerful story, and it has been an honor to be part of a production that continues to reach new audiences."

The Wilmington Theater Awards recognize excellence in regional theater across North Carolina, honoring outstanding performances and productions each season.

For more information, visit:

www.glaucoaraujo.com

Media Contact:

Deborah Lewis

Press & Artist Relations

contact@glaucoaraujo.com
